

ALISTAIR MARSHALL SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Alistair Marshall has helped leading law firms, accountancy practices, retail banks and household name corporates attract new clients and win more new business for more than 25 years.

Unlike many other consultants who are very theoretical, Alistair has a hands-on, practical approach, free of jargon and business school nonsense.

His specialty is implementing simple, achievable, and cost-effective business solutions for small practices through to large regional and national firms. His track record demonstrates consistent results in achieving double digit growth in new client instructions.

“Excellent feedback - amazing in fact. Comments were ‘very impressive, excellent and relevant presenter who spoke plain English, useful, informative, funny and thought provoking’. We would love to have you back!”

Una Doyle, Head of Professional Development, Law Society of New South Wales
