

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICE MARK MOSHINSKY

Justice Moshinsky practised as a barrister at the Victorian Bar from 1995 to 2015, including as senior counsel from 2007, specialising in constitutional and administrative law, taxation, superannuation, competition law, private international law and human rights. In 2010-2011, he was the Chairman of the Bar Council of the Victorian Bar.

In 1986, he completed a Bachelor of Arts at the University of Melbourne. In 1988, he completed a Bachelor of Laws with First Class Honours at the University of Melbourne, being awarded the Supreme Court Prize. During 1989-1991, he studied at the University of Oxford on a Rhodes Scholarship, completing a Bachelor of Civil Law with First Class Honours.

In 1992-1993 and 1996, he was an independent lecturer at the Law School, University of Melbourne, and taught conflict of laws and constitutional and administrative law. In 2013, 2015, 2017 and 2019 he was a Senior Fellow at the Melbourne Law School, co-teaching a subject on the separation of powers in the Masters program.

He has published a number of articles on constitutional law and the conflict of laws. He is a director of the Australian Academy of Law and an alternate director of the National Judicial College of Australia.

