

Roshana May, Director, Independent Legal Assistance & Review Service (ILARS)

Roshana has many years' experience as a personal injury lawyer with a particular focus on statutory compensation schemes.

She is a subject matter expert in workers compensation law and practice and is passionate about it! Since July 2017 she has been the Director of the Independent Legal Assistance and Review Service, responsible for all aspects of the funding of independent lawyers for 'non-exempt' injured workers.