

Lyn Nicholson

General Counsel, Corporate & Commercial, Holding Redlich

Lyn is a General Counsel in the Corporate & Commercial group of Holding Redlich with a broad wealth of corporate and commercial experience.

Lyn has significant expertise advising on complex corporate transactions. Lyn's commercial experience has focused on intellectual property and information assets which have involved various technologies and regulatory regimes.

Lyn's experience includes developing and implementing privacy and information security policies and negotiating contracts for the exploitation of information assets. Lyn has significant experience in privacy and spam regulation. Lyn advises on directors' duties and a range of practical governance issues for both listed and unlisted companies.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES