

Lisa Butler

Managing Director, The Talea Group

As a registered Psychologist, Lisa strives to help both individuals and organisations to improve their productivity and wellbeing through:

- bespoke learning solutions, including training programs and coaching, and
- targeted counselling and psychological instruments.

Lisa is well-known for her philosophy of genuinely customising her approach to suit the business, team and individual. This approach is very efficient and maximises results.

With her corporate clients, Lisa focuses on enhancing skills and confidence in business writing, networking, presenting, leading and enhancing relationships, business development and planning, and general communication.

Lisa is also a sought-after facilitator and emcee for conferences. Lisa supports her individual clients across both the corporate and private landscape, providing a unique perspective when counselling to enhance wellbeing. Her focus is on helping people to manage and optimise their mental health and relationships.

As the author of best-selling book “Networking Exposed – Discover the secrets of business networking”, Lisa is also a frequent keynote speaker at large conferences and events.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES