

Sam Berry

Director, Creative Lawyers

Sam is a commercial lawyer who advises a broad range of clients with an emphasis on the entertainment, communications, media and technology industries.

Sam has worked in private practice at leading law firms and in-house at a prominent international production company, a large sports media company and Screen Australia.

Recent experience includes acting for clients on content development, production and distribution, marketing campaigns and activations, IP protection and commercialisation, mergers and acquisitions, major disputes, corporate governance, commercial contracting, competition and consumer law issues, privacy and data security.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES