

Anthony Fillbrook

Practice Manager, PW Lawyers

Anthony joined PW Lawyers (formerly Proctor Willaws) as Practice Manager in 2017, bringing his extensive experience in business operations and management in a variety of industries to the firm.

He studied law at Sydney University with great academic success, winning the Legal Profession Admission Board prize for Practice and Procedure during his studies.

Anthony has almost twenty years' experience in setting up small businesses and management consulting. He has worked with the IT industry as well as telecommunications and in the security industry.

Anthony specialises in drafting wills, Probate and challenges to wills including family provision claims. He has also worked in family law and consulted on industrial relations and employment law.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES