

Craig Emery

General Council, Telstra

Craig joined Telstra as a lawyer in 2006 after several years as a litigator with Ashurst. He was the General Counsel for Telstra Business from 2011 to 2013, then General Counsel of Products, Marketing and Media up to early 2015 when he moved to Hong Kong to take the role of General Counsel, Global Enterprise and Services, International. Here, Craig led a team of over 30 across 7 countries managing a broad range of corporate, commercial, regulatory and transactional work. In mid-2016, he moved back to Australia to lead Telstra's Retail, Small Business, Product, Marketing & Media Legal team as General Counsel.

Specialties: Telecommunications Law, consumer protection, regulatory work, general commercial law, trade practices, marketing and advertising, contract negotiation, litigation

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES