

Caroline Hutchinson

Principal/Director - Accredited Specialist, Commercial Litigation, Coleman Greig Lawyers
Graduate, Australian Institute of Company Directors

Caroline Hutchinson is the Head of Litigation at Coleman Greig Lawyers, and leads a team of commercial litigators who deal with a wide variety of issues ranging from contractual disputes to intellectual property proceedings, misleading and deceptive conduct through to insolvency and building and construction matters.

With over 25 years' experience in litigation, Caroline brings a pragmatic perspective in advising clients whose large-scale commercial projects involve complex contractual disputes and litigation. Working with national clients in various sectors including Australian subsidiaries of multinationals, Caroline draws on a comprehensive understanding of the differing legislative requirements across the various Australian states, regularly appearing in the Federal Court and in the State jurisdictions of NSW, Queensland and Victoria.

Caroline is an Accredited Specialist in Commercial Litigation and has been a member of the Litigation Law and Practice Committee of the Law Society of NSW since 2014.

Caroline was a finalist in 2021 for Partner of the Year -SME (Lawyers Weekly, Women in Law Awards). She holds the position of Chair at Coleman Greig, is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and being strongly committed to the community, is a Non-Executive Director (Independent) of Western Sydney University Enterprises Pty Ltd and the Ambassador for Coleman Greig's Women in Business Forum.
