

Ben Harper-Phillips

Special Counsel, Maddocks

Recently promoted to Special Counsel at Maddocks, Ben acts for market leading corporate and government clients across the commercial, retail, residential and development, real estate sectors. For over 13 years, Ben has delivered advice and transactional legal services with a strong commercial focus. Ben's expertise includes commercial and government property portfolios, acquisition and divestment due diligence, commercial, industrial and retail leasing, and development and off the plan projects. Ben works closely with the Maddocks commercial team on an almost daily basis assisting them with critical property due diligence and advice in their commercial transactions, with a particular focus on private equity deals.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES