

Alfonso Layson

Senior Associate, Sarah Bevan Family Lawyers

Alfonso is a Senior Associate at Sarah Bevan Family Lawyers and an Accredited Specialist in Family Law. Alfonso joined the team at Sarah Bevan Family Lawyers in 2013 from another specialist family law firm, where he gained considerable experience in both advocacy and dispute resolution. He takes great pride in facing the diverse and challenging aspects of family law. He has never shied away from a challenge and has been the primary lawyer on many difficult and highly unique cases, including the first Australian decision under the Hague Convention on Child Protection.

Alfonso's key strengths as a family lawyer lie in his passion for assisting people, and his respectful approach to all clients. He combines this with his forthrightly honest approach, which is appreciated by his clients.

Alfonso is a remarkably strong advocate for his clients and has a wide range of experience in all the family law courts, as well as in mediations and other forms of dispute resolution. Alfonso has considerable experience in surrogacy law, both domestic and international surrogacy arrangements. He practises across the whole range of family law, including international cases and cases involving complex structures.

Alfonso's Business degree provides him with an extra layer of skill in dealing with property cases which involve businesses and trusts. Prior to commencing work as a lawyer, Alfonso gained a variety of skills throughout his range of employment, travel and general life experiences.

