

Will Tuckey

Barrister, Samuel Griffith Chambers

Will was admitted as Solicitor in 2005 then as Barrister in 2015. He currently specialises in the following areas of practice: criminal law, inquests and inquiries, mental health advocacy, Supreme Court bails.

His professional background includes:

Legal Aid NSW – District Court sentences, trials and appeals from the Local Court; Supreme Court bails; committal proceedings; Local Court proceedings; and Drug Court proceedings.

Western Aboriginal Legal Service/Aboriginal Legal Service (ACT/NSW) Ltd (Bourke Office) – Local and Children’s Court proceedings, and District Court proceedings (sentences; appeals from the Local Court; instructing in trial and mental health proceedings) in Western NSW.

Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions – Trial Clerk (preparing and instructing in trials), Short Matters Clerk (preparing, instructing and appearing in Local Court appeals to the District Court and Supreme Court bails).

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES