

Alicia Wong

Senior Associate, Stacks Goudkamp

Alicia is an Accredited Specialist in Personal Injury Law. She can speak Chinese (Mandarin) to a basic, social level and specialises in medical negligence claims.

Since 2010 Alicia has acted for plaintiffs in personal injury claims. Alicia practises predominantly in medical negligence in a wide array of cases including acquired brain injuries from birth trauma, catastrophic injuries from delays in diagnoses and treatment, misdiagnoses, Compensation to Relatives Act and nervous shock claims, surgical negligence, mishandled cosmetic procedures and failures to properly inform patients of risks. Alicia has had carriage of claims in the NSW District Court, NSW Court of Appeal, NSW Supreme Court and the High Court of Australia.

Alicia is member of the NSW Law Society Specialist Accreditation Personal Injury Committee and works with Tom Goudkamp, Chair of this Committee.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES