

Sarah Warren

Barrister, 9 Windeyer Chambers

Sarah was admitted to practice in 2008 and was called to the Bar in 2015. Prior to being called to the Bar, Sarah worked in-house for a national insurer, practising in insurance litigation.

Sarah has experience in defendant and plaintiff personal injury in addition to commercial litigation, insolvency, debt recovery, wills and estates, and property law. Sarah has appeared in numerous jurisdictions from the Local Court through to the Court of Appeal, as well as tribunals such as NCAT and the Workers Compensation Commission.

Sarah was appointed as a DRS (Dispute Resolution Service) Claims Assessor from 2018 through to February 2021, a statutory appointment under the Motor Accident Injuries Act 2017. The Dispute Resolution Service handles claims in relation to motor vehicle accidents occurring after 1 December 2017.

Sarah was appointed as a CARS Assessor from 2019 through to February 2021 (Claims Assessment and Resolution Services), a statutory appointment pursuant to the Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999.

Sarah has been involved in NSW Young Lawyers since 2009. Sarah was the Chair of the NSW Young Lawyers Civil Litigation Committee from 2015-2017 and an Executive Councillor between 2015 and 2017. Sarah was also a member of the Law Society Injury Compensation Committee in 2011 and 2012 and a member of the NSW Bar Association Common Law Committee between mid-2015 to mid-2018. Sarah is currently a member of the NSW Bar Association Diversity and Equality Committee.
