Barrister, Maurice Byers Chambers

Juliet is a Sydney barrister practising at Maurice Byers Chambers and a part-time Senior Member of the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

Juliet practices primarily in public law, commercial law, insurance and family provision. Prior to coming to the bar, she was a senior solicitor in the Administrative Law and Constitutional Law Practice Groups at the Crown Solicitor's Office in Sydney. Prior to that, Juliet was a Principal Lawyer with the Queensland Department of Natural Resources and a solicitor in the Energy and Resources team at Clayton Utz in Brisbane.

Juliet was awarded a PhD in English Literature from the University of Sydney in 2001 and first class Honours degrees from that University in Law (1994) and Arts (1995). She has lectured in Law and English at the Universities of Sydney and Western Sydney and taught Contract Law at Macquarie University in 2014.

Juliet publishes and presents seminar papers regularly, on topics including client legal privilege, public interest immunity, statutory interpretation, privacy, procedural fairness, jurisdictional error and contract law.
