

Michael Barnes

Partner, Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers

Michael's depth of experience, ability to get to the heart of an issue and communication skills put him at the top of employment & industrial law and personal injury law.

Michael is recognised in the profession as a leading practitioner in these practice areas and is accredited by the NSW Law Society in employment & industrial law and personal injury.

He has served on a variety of committees of the Law Society, including as part of the peer review process by which solicitors become accredited specialists in employment and industrial Law.

He has been a partner at Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers since 2013 where he has a busy practice handling matters from a diversity of clients from all areas of New South Wales.

Michael is an Accredited Specialist in both Personal Injury and Employment Law

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES