

Vikram Misra

Barrister, Clarence Chambers

Vikram was admitted as a solicitor in 2012 and called to the NSW Bar in 2015. He maintains a broad commercial litigation practice, however he is frequently briefed in the areas of taxation law, property law, contract law, construction law and equity.

Vikram currently contributes regular articles to Legalwise Seminars on: Caveats; Practice and Procedure; and also Arbitration and Mediation (co-authored with Sydney Jacobs - Barrister). He also presents for BenchTV and CPD for Me.

Vikram is also a contributing author to the Security of Payment (NSW) section of the looseleaf Commercial Arbitration Law and Practice Service for Thomson Reuters.

Vikram was previously employed as a casual academic for the University of Sydney Law Extension Committee, Sydney NSW where he marked contract law exams.

Vikram regularly appears in all state and federal courts as well as NCAT. He also accepts direct access briefs in some circumstances.

Vikram is a member of the Accessibility Panel of the NSW Bar Association.
