Partner, Massons

Leisha has nearly 20 years' of legal experience and has been practising as a commercial property lawyer for more than 15 years. She is experienced in various aspects of property law, including sales and acquisitions, leasing, property development, and specialist property-related advice (eg long-term leasehold, combustible cladding, and distressed property sales).

Leisha has a strong background and particular specialisation in complex titling and strata law, including strata renewal and collective sales, strata management and compliance, stratum subdivision, and structured titling. Her clients are from various sectors, including property and investment funds, government, property developers, strata schemes and corporates.

Leisha has been a director on the Board of the Real Estate Institute of NSW since 2019 and has been a member of the Strata Chapter Committee of REI NSW since 2016. Leisha was recently made a fellow of the ACSL (Australian College of Strata Lawyers) and she is also a member of the Law Society of NSW and the Law Society of Tasmania.

Leisha was listed in the Doyle's Guide "Leading Property & Real Estate Lawyers – NSW" for 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2022 and "Leading Leasing Lawyers – NSW" for 2020, 2021 and 2022. She is regularly invited to present on strata and property-related legal topics at Legalwise, UNSWEde, the College of Law and REI NSW.
