

Kyu-Won Kim

Lawyer, Clayton Utz

Kyu-Won joined Clayton Utz in 2020, following several public sector roles, including at the Administrative Appeals Tribunal where he was involved in a range of proceedings relating to a variety of statutory workers' compensation schemes, and at the Therapeutic Goods Administration where he advised on regulatory issues in relation to therapeutic goods.

Kyu-Won began his career at Clayton Utz in the public sector litigation team conducting complex litigation and dispute resolution and advising on statutory interpretation, administrative law. He has recently joined Colin Loveday in Clayton Utz's national Product Liability group, where he continues to conduct complex commercial litigation and investigations, as well as advise on regulatory and compliance issues in relation to a wide range of consumer and financial products.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES