

Rebel Kenna

Director & Prothonotary, Supreme Court of New South Wales

Rebel Kenna was appointed Director and Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of New South Wales in 2015 after joining the Court in 2011 as a registrar. She is responsible for the management of court operations including the registrars that have been delegated judicial power, and regularly case manages lists and hear interlocutory applications in the Common Law, Equity, Court of Appeal and Court of Criminal Appeal divisions of the Court. Rebel also carries out the statutory functions of the role of Prothonotary. She has been appointed by the Chief Justice as a mediator and regularly conduct mediations under the court annexed mediation scheme. Rebel also has experience working in both the public and private sectors across several litigation, management, advisory and administrative roles in the legal industry. Prior to her appointment to the Supreme Court, Rebel was a director and the practice manager of a Sydney law practice specialising in commercial litigation, insolvency, consumer and insurance law.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES