

Hugh Morrison

Barrister, St James Chambers

Hugh was called to the Bar in 2017. He practices in wills and estates (including contested probate and family provision matters), protective matters and general equity.

Since coming to the Bar, he has appeared led and unled in hearings, motions and directions hearings, primarily in the Equity Division of the Supreme Court. He has appeared in a number of noteworthy cases including Re MP's Statutory Will [2019] NSWSC 331, Re PDC [2021] NSWSC 1701 and Equity Trustees Wealth Services Limited v Astill [2023] NSWSC 1209.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Hugh worked as a solicitor at Teece Hodgson & Ward. He also worked as tipstaff to the Probate and Protective List Judge in the Equity Division of the Supreme Court of NSW.

Hugh was named as a recommended wills and estates litigation junior counsel in the Doyles Guide in 2019 and as a leading wills and estates litigation junior counsel between 2020 and 2023.

