

Amber Cerny

Partner, Ernst & Young

Amber is a partner in the Corporate Law practice in Ernst & Young Sydney. She began practicing law in private practice in Australia before moving to London in 2016 where she worked inhouse within government and private practice. On her return to Sydney in 2015, Amber joined Ernst & Young's Corporate Law team as a Director.

Amber holds a Bachelor of Laws, a Bachelor of Arts (Hons), and has been admitted to the Supreme Court of New South Wales, as well as been an accredited solicitor of England and Wales. She is Chair of the Business Law Committee of the Law Society of NSW and the Deputy Chair of the Privacy and Data Committee of the Law Society of NSW.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES