

Thomas Kwok

Partner, Holding Redlich

Thomas is a specialist in planning, environment, administrative and government law with over 17 years' experience helping both private and public sector clients navigate complex legislative regimes with confidence. With significant experience in the private sector and as a senior executive lawyer in the NSW Government, including as General Counsel of a government authority, Thomas deploys his expertise and experience to find practical and robust solutions for clients when it matters most.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES