Partner, Makinson d'Apice Lawyers

Paul Evans has more than 30 years of experience in providing legal services to private clients and charities. He is an Accredited Specialist in Wills and Estates Law and a member of STEP. Paul has been listed in the Doyle's Guide for 2023 as one of the pre-eminent lawyers in NSW in wills, estates and succession planning. He is highly experienced in assisting a range of clients, including high net worth individuals, in transferring and protecting their wealth. Paul worked in London for 17 years and during that time he specialised in inheritance tax mitigation and the establishment and administration of both testamentary and inter vivos trusts and charities, including the King Edward's Hospital Fund for London. Paul is a regular speaker at seminars for solicitors and other professionals, on estate planning and estate administration.
