

Madeleine Urmoneit

Associate, Swaab

Madeleine Urmoneit is an Associate with Swaab lawyers in Sydney practising in the property and commercial teams. Madeleine provides advice and conducts transactional work for individuals, companies and SMSFs in a broad range of conveyancing transactions including residential, rural, commercial and industrial sales and purchases. In her work in private practice, Madeleine has trained and supervised support staff on conveyancing matters including internal and external staff training on the implementation of electronic conveyancing. Prior to this, Madeleine worked in an in-house legal team for National Australia Bank and was involved in legal support staff and banking staff training in various aspects of property dealings.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES