

Jnana Gumbert

Barrister, Jack Shand Chambers

Jnana Gumbert has an extensive practice in common law, administrative law and insurance law, and 20 years' experience conducting personal injury litigation in motor accidents, medical negligence and civil liability. Since being called to the Bar in 2012, Jnana has worked extensively in administrative law, particularly in judicial review of administrative decisions within the NSW CTP scheme. She has been recognised as a 'Preeminent' Junior Counsel in NSW Insurance & Personal Injury Law (Doyle's Guide 2020). Jnana has been an Accredited Specialist in Personal Injury Law and an Assessor for Specialist Accreditation assessments. Other past roles include NSW Branch President of the Australian Lawyers Alliance, and member of the Common Law Committee of the NSW Bar Association. Jnana has presented papers at numerous seminars and conferences, and written many articles. She co-authored the Motor Accidents chapter of Goudkamp and Morrison's Personal Injury Law Manual NSW (Thomson Reuters) and The Law Handbook (Thomson Reuters).

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES