

Monica Ross-Maranik

Consulting Principal, Keypoint Law

Monica is an Accredited Specialist in Wills and Estates Law in NSW, with 23 years' experience guiding clients through the full spectrum of estate planning, estate administration and estate litigation issues. She holds a Master of Laws from Sydney University, and is a current member of the International Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners. Monica regularly participates in industry seminars, presenting on the key issues arising in the area of wills and estates. Monica is recognised in Doyle's Guide 2021 as a 'Leading' Wills & Estates Litigation lawyer; and as one of a small number of 'Recommended' Wills, Estates & Succession Planning lawyers. She was also listed as a 'Recommended' Wills, Estates & Succession Planning lawyer in Doyle's Guide in 2020 and 2018.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES