

Michelle Hirschhorn

Barrister, 5 Selborne Chambers

Michelle Hirschhorn has over 20 years' experience in taxation law. Prior to coming to the Bar, she practised at KPMG. Michelle has significant experience in both Federal and State taxation law and represents clients (both the Commissioner and taxpayers) in the High Court, Federal Court, Administrative Appeals Tribunal and the Supreme Court of New South Wales. She also assists in all forms of alternative dispute resolution. Michelle has wide technical experience in taxation law and has been recognised for her diligent approach to the preparation of evidence and submissions: she has been listed as a leading tax barrister in Doyle's Guide since 2016 and in Chambers and Partners Asia-Pacific in 2020. She has served as a judicial member of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal (now NCAT) and has also sat on the Appeal Panel of the Tribunal in revenue matters.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES