About Lieutenant Colonel Tanya Haber

Lieutenant Colonel Tanya Haber first enlisted into the Army (Reserves) in 2000. She transferred to the Australian Army Legal Corps in 2009 as an Officer, Captain and has worked in a variety of areas in the administrative, discipline and operational law sphere. She deployed overseas on two tours of the Middle East for 6 months each; Iraq in 2007 and Afghanistan in 2013.

Lieutenant Colonel Haber undertook full time service for Operation Bushfire Assist and Operation Covid Assist. This involved providing operational legal advice in the domestic operations space.

She is currently the NSW Panel Leader Raise Train Sustain which facilitates the training continuum for new Army, Air Force and Navy reserve legal officers.
