

Geri Ettinger

Mediator, NSW Personal Injury Commission

Day 2 – Government Solicitors

A Flourishing Career

About Geri Ettinger

Geri Ettinger is a lawyer, specialist-accredited dispute resolution practitioner and nationally-accredited mediator who has worked both in the private and public sectors. She was Chief Executive of the Australian Consumers' Association, publisher of CHOICE Magazine, for more than 10 years, and was for a long period, a Board Member of St George Bank.

Ms Ettinger held an appointment as a Senior Member of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT Commonwealth), for over 20 years. The work in very diverse federal jurisdictions involved mediation, hearings and decision making, and the writing of Reasons for Decision.

She currently holds an appointment as a Mediator of the NSW Personal Injury Commission.

Geri also chairs hearings as appointed by the NSW Ministry of Health with regard to appeals against disciplinary action directed to medical practitioners.

Ms Ettinger furthermore participates in the work of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee of the Law Council of Australia, the ADR Committee of the NSW Law Society, the Government Solicitors Committee of the NSW Law Society, and the Committee of the AAWJ, the Australian Women Judges.

She mentors young lawyers, and teaches Ethics at Primary School.
