

Michael Guilday

General Counsel & Head of Property, Sydney Fish Market
Pty Ltd

Day 2 –In-House Corporate Lawyers

Gatekeeper, guardian of the moral conscience and lion tamer – in-house lawyers who walk the ethical tightrope

About Michael Guilday

Michael is a purpose driven Chief Legal Officer, Executive Leader and Governance Professional, with multidisciplinary expertise across several different industries and sectors. He has a passion for place creation, business combination, transformation, innovation, diversity, disruption, sustainability, recognition of Australia's First Nations People, investing, and finding solutions to complex problems.

Michael is currently General Counsel and Head of Property at Sydney Fish Market. As member of the Executive Group, he is responsible for the Legal and Property Functions at Sydney Fish Market, including executive level strategic decision making in relation to commercial, operations, legal and ESG aspects of the Market.

Prior to his current role, Michael held senior in-house legal and governance positions with Lendlease Corporation, Cbus Super Fund, Commonwealth Bank and Goodman Group; where he has been responsible for leadership within high performing legal functions and providing high quality legal and governance advice to operational businesses and Boards.