

Peter Renehan Special Counsel, ACCC

Day 2 – In-House Corporate Lawyers

Hear from the Regulators

About Peter Renehan - B. Commerce/LLB (UNSW); LLM (University of Sydney)

Since October 2006, Peter has been employed by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission as its Special Counsel. In that role, he provides high-level strategic legal assistance across all areas of the ACCC's work. Peter has extensive experience advising on both competition and consumer law investigations and litigation for the ACCC.

During the period 1992 to 2006, Peter was a barrister at the Sydney bar. He practised primarily in the areas of trade practices and Commonwealth criminal law.

Prior to commencing practice as a barrister, Peter was the associate to Justice Lionel Murphy, High Court of Australia (1985-1986), a solicitor at Clayton Utz (1986-1988) and employed by the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions (1988-1992).