

Jennifer Ball

Partner Clayton Utz

Day 2 – Early Career Lawyers

'You Should Ask That' – building a better profession through curiosity

About Jennifer Ball

Jennifer Ball is a senior Partner in the Commercial Litigation practice of the leading law firm Clayton Utz. She is also currently the Senior Vice President and Councillor of the Law Society of New South Wales and recently appointed as director of the Law Council of Australia and serves on the board of the Legal Profession Admissions Board. Jennifer served as Chair of the Law Society's Professional Conduct Committee for several years and is a member of its Litigation Law & Practice Committee.

Jennifer is a recognised leader in her field in legal directories and is an expert in restructuring and insolvency, debt recovery and general commercial litigation with more than 30 years' experience in conducting complex disputes.

Jennifer's work is widely acknowledged involving all forms of commercial dispute resolution in all court jurisdictions, negotiations, and mediation. Jennifer also assists corporates as well as insolvency appointees in relation to both contentious and transactional matters.

As a recognised expert on directors' duties and shadow directorship, she frequently presents to universities, Government agencies, professional bodies, large corporations, and members of the legal profession.

Jennifer also served as a former Chair and is a former director of the national Board of the Turnaround Management Association Australia (TMAA) from 2014 - 2024