About Anneka Ferguson

Anneka is a Senior Lecturer with the UNSW Practical Legal Training Program, and a Solicitor of Walker Gibbs and King specialising in Property and Commercial law in a rural NSW. She has a BA/LLB (Hons), and a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, a Graduate Diploma in Psychology, a Masters of International Law and a certificate in Blockchain Strategy.

She is a Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy, twice a Fellow of the National Institute for the Teaching of Professionalism and Ethics (NIFTEP), Banff (2012) and Melbourne (2018) and a member of the NSW Law Society's Ethics and Rural Issues committees.

Her published work to date focuses on the intersection of wellbeing, ethics and professionalism in law students and the impact on the legal profession.

She has a genuine passion for working alongside law graduates as they find their own pathway for using their legal qualifications, as well as driving rally cars sideways (and usually the right way up) through the forest.
