

Jon Downes

General Counsel, MinterEllison

With 20 years' general counsel experience and 10 years in leading law firms, Jon oversees legal and regulatory issues at MinterEllison. His wealth of experience, understanding of professional services, risk management approach, and keen interest in legal operations and AI contribute to delivering value to clients while upholding integrity and excellence.

Outside MinterEllison, his commitment to social responsibility led him to help establish the Association of Corporate Counsel's (ACC) Pro Bono Committee in 2020, which he chairs. He is a member of the Board of ACC Australia, a former President of the ACC NSW chapter, and a member of the ACC NSW Executive Committee. Additionally, he serves as a Director of Law Firms Australia.

Prior to becoming General Counsel at MinterEllison in October 2022, Jon held various regional General Counsel roles for multi-nationals. He started his legal career at Hogan Lovells in London and later moved to Allens Linklaters in Sydney. With extensive experience in IPOs, M&A transactions, regulatory investigations, corporate governance, risk management, government relations, and employment disputes to large scale litigation, Jon now oversees a team of legal, compliance professionals, and the secretariat at MinterEllison.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES