

Manny Conditis

Director, Conditis Lawyers

Manny Conditis is one of only a few Solicitor Advocates who appear in murder and other serious criminal trials in the Supreme Court and in appeals in the Court of Criminal Appeal and the High Court.

He was recognised as an Accredited Specialist in Criminal Law in 2001, received the Law Society of NSW President's Award for Pro Bono Services in 2012, and was named the Lawyers Weekly Criminal Law Partner of the Year in 2021. He has been a member of the Law Society of NSW Criminal Law Committee for many years.

Manny is sought after by the media for commentary on legal stories and events, with channels including The Australian, The Daily Telegraph, various ABC platforms, The 7.30 Report, Four Corners, Channel 7, Channel 9, A Current Affair, 60 Minutes, The Project, and SBS. He regularly presents at legal education events and seminars, including at the Brother and Sisters in Law Annual CPD Conference, and for the TV Education Network at Armidale and the Law Society of NSW.
