

Rani Gandha

Partner, Turnbull Hill Lawyers

Rani Gandha is a Partner of the Wills & Estates team at Turnbull Hill Lawyers. With a strong background in asset protection and business structuring, she practises in business and property law, providing clients with well-rounded, practical advice. Rani assists clients with estate planning, including drafting tax-effective Wills, testamentary trusts, and related documents, helping them protect and structure their assets effectively. She also acts for buyers, sellers, lenders, and borrowers in residential and commercial property matters and advises on commercial and retail leasing, business sales and purchases, and various commercial agreements. Rani's approach is centred on listening to her clients, understanding their goals, and offering realistic, tailored solutions that safeguard their interests and support their long-term objectives.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES