

Jason Elias

Chief Executive Officer, Elias Recruitment

After completing his law degree and BA in Asian Studies, Jason Elias worked for a short period as a lawyer with Baker & McKenzie. In 2000 he established Elias Recruitment, a legal recruitment agency covering law firms, government departments, in-house legal teams, Indigenous organisations and not-for-profits. Elias Recruitment uses a range of techniques – research, traditional techniques and social sourcing – and sources legal professional support staff as well as legal practitioners. Jason has received several Recruitment Leader of the Year and Business Leader of the Year awards. In the past decade his roles have included global Chair of NPWorldwide, a global network for independent recruiting firms. Jason is on the Board of the Recruitment, Consulting and Staffing Association, the peak body for the recruitment, staffing & workforce solutions industry across Australia and New Zealand.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES