

Steven Wright

Associate Director Crime (West/South), Legal Aid NSW

Steven Wright commenced practice at Legal Aid NSW, in the graduate program in Sydney. He subsequently worked in the Coffs Harbour, Port Macquarie, Dubbo, and Broken Hill offices. He has a keen interest in Regional and Remote Practice, specifically for children and those with mental health concerns where services are limited. Steven was the Vice President and President of the Far West Law Society for many years. He was awarded Legal Aid NSW's Criminal Division Award for Service Excellence in 2022. The following year he was a finalist in the NSW Law Society Regional Practitioner of the Year Award. Steven was recently appointed as the Associate Director of Crime in the West and South.
