

Jess Salvato

General Counsel, RELA

Jess Salvato is a highly respected female leader in law and business, with over a decade of experience, including stints at King & Wood Mallesons and Scentre Group. Specialising in property transactions and general commercial law, Jess has represented a wide range of clients, from property owners and developers to financiers, across diverse property sectors. Jess now has a deep focus on the renewable energy land space, utilising her extensive background to spearhead sustainable initiatives. Her dedication to excellence and commitment to driving positive change not only benefits RELA's clients but also contributes to the advancement of the industry as a whole. Jess lives in the country town of Mudgee with her family, where she enjoys working with horses and caring for their ever-expanding vegetable garden.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES