

David Allen

Managing Director, Haille Paine Solicitors; President, Southern Tablelands Law Society

David joined Haille Paine in September 2017. He is the Practice Manager and a Principal of Haille Paine, together with Rohan McAlpine.

David brings a wealth of experience from 17 years working in Sydney law firms, including Hicksons Lawyers, and 10 years as a sole practitioner in the Southern Highlands as principal of David Allen Legal. He specialises in employment law – including contracts, employee management and unfair dismissal disputes – as well as insurance law, acting for insurers. His other areas include education law, property law, wills and estates.

David is the President of the Berrima District Law Society and is a member of the Highlands Business Circle and the Southern Highlands Chamber of Commerce & Industry. He is an honorary director of the Southern Highlands Foundation, which promotes and supports charitable causes in the area.
