

Karina Penfold

Partner, Turner Freeman Lawyers

Karina Penfold is a Partner and an Accredited Specialist in Wills & Estates (NSW) at Turner Freeman Lawyers.

With a wealth of experience, Karina handles a diverse range of Wills & Estates matters, including Estate Planning, both simple and intricate deceased estate Administration, Will Disputes, Elder Law, and Elder Abuse.

Her expertise extends to complex scenarios such as disputes involving beneficiaries left out of a will, guiding Executors through conflicts while upholding their responsibilities and ensuring Beneficiaries receive their rightful assets. Karina understands that every Wills & Estates matter is unique and emotionally charged, which motivates her to provide clients with clear guidance through legal processes.

Committed to practical and cost-effective solutions, Karina diligently seeks resolutions that best serve her clients' interests. She enjoys working with a wide spectrum of clients, including blended families, vulnerable individuals and their families, high-net-worth clients, business owners and the elderly.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES