

Sarah Maddox

Manager, Enforcement, AUSTRAC

As a Manager in AUSTRAC's Enforcement division, Sarah Maddox is responsible for leading investigations into potential non-compliance with the AML/CTF Act and Rules. Sarah has been with AUSTRAC for five years. In that time, she has worked as a lawyer in Enforcement, a senior analyst in Intelligence, and most recently led a team within the Cryptocurrency Taskforce. Prior to joining AUSTRAC, Sarah was a criminal defence lawyer in NSW and then Victoria.

Sarah grew up in rural NSW and commenced her legal journey as a secretary in regional law firms. She joins the panel with an understanding of the challenges and joys of rural legal practice, and the importance of access to legal services within Australian communities.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES