

Mark Smyth

Partner, Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer

Mark Smyth is a litigation partner at Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer, specialising in ESG disputes.

Mark is currently involved in various involving novel climate change-related claims, ranging from proceedings alleging misleading conduct in respect of climate change disclosures to judicial review proceedings challenging projects and licences on the basis of potential climate impacts.

Mark is the Co-chair of the NSW Law Society's Climate Change Working Group.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES