

Mark Smith

Principal, Brander Smith McKnight

Mark Smith founded Brander Smith McKnight in 2005. Admitted as a legal practitioner in the Supreme Court of NSW and the High Court of Australia, he practises in Commercial and Business Law and Building and Construction Law, providing advice on complex business transactions, business sales and purchases and civil litigation. His work encompasses a wide range of legal matters, from international construction and infrastructure projects to small business and individual matters.

Mark has extensive court experience, appearing regularly in the Local, District and Supreme Courts, and is a successful advocate both in the courts and during complex negotiations and difficult dispute resolution matters out of court.

He holds Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Science degrees, and a Master of Business Administration Degree from the University of Sydney. During Mark's legal studies, he received two academic awards from The Sydney University Law Extension Committee for achieving first place in two subjects. He has been nominated by the President of The Law Society of NSW for an Access to Justice Award.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES