

Mario Halouvas

CEO and Founder of MHPP

Mario is a Productivity Specialist, Technology Expert, and the founder and CEO of MHPP. As a Keynote Speaker and Executive Coach, he has captivated audiences by addressing the urgent need for productivity in our fast-paced world. As a performance and productivity coach, Mario masterfully declutters and reshapes lives, giving his audience the tools and insights they need to reclaim their time and energy.

Mario engages his audience through compelling programs and coaching sessions that foster growth and efficient management. His expertise in Time, Energy and Workload Management, combined with his skills in Coaching and Communication, ensures that his presentations are both inspiring and practical.

Mario's energy and expertise make him a sought-after keynote speaker, known for reigniting teams and sparking a motivation to act. His ability to connect with audiences and provide actionable strategies ensures that his sessions leave a lasting impact, driving productivity and personal effectiveness within organisations.

Over his 20-year career as an Executive Coach and Facilitator and Keynote Speaker, he has consistently delivered transformative experiences.