

Anita Thompson

Partner, Allens

Anita Thompson is a Partner in the Competition, Consumer & Regulatory team at Allens, with extensive experience in advising clients on complex competition and consumer law matters.

She specialises in investigations and court proceedings involving mergers, cartels, misuse of market power, exclusive dealing and anti-competitive agreements. Anita is highly skilled in navigating the strategic challenges that arise in regulatory investigations and enforcement actions.

Anita also advises on ACCC merger clearances, drawing on a deep knowledge of the evolving regulatory frameworks and market dynamics. She brings valuable commercial insight from her previous experience as a management consultant at Bain & Company, giving her a business perspective that enhances her legal advice.

Anita has been recognised for her competition and consumer law expertise as a Rising Star in Doyle's Guide and a Future Leader by Lexology.