

Maire Grimes

Acting Associate Director, Legal Aid New South Wales

Maire Grimes is Acting Associate Director at Legal Aid NSW, bringing 20 years of experience in criminal law. Her career spans private practice in the Illawarra, as well as roles as both a prosecutor and a defence lawyer across NSW and Victoria.

For the past eight years, Maire has successfully led and managed teams in Criminal Law and Royal Commissions. She holds a Masters of Law in Human Rights and is passionate about coaching and developing emerging leaders in the legal profession.