

The Law Society
OF NEW SOUTH WALES

Elaine Wong

In-House Corporate Lawyers Committee Member, The Law Society of New South Wales

Mario Elaine is a commercial lawyer with over 20 years' experience in intellectual property, community engagement and drafting agreements and conducting negotiations including for major arts, high profile events and technology procurement.

After completion of her Master of Laws at the University of Cambridge, Elaine worked in private practice before transitioning to in house environments. She was senior legal counsel in a large legal team at Commonwealth Bank of Australia for many years. Elaine has also worked as in-house counsel in small legal teams in large and small commercial organisations. In more recent years, Elaine has done project based legal work.

Elaine is a volunteer lawyer on the Document Review Panel, Arts Law Centre and serves on the Law Society In-House Corporate Lawyers Committee.