

The Law Society
OF NEW SOUTH WALES

Rishika Pai

Board Director, Lucy's Project & Assistant Principal Solicitor, Women's Legal Service NSW

Rishika Pai is a Board Director at Lucy's Project, Assistant Principal Solicitor, and an Accredited Specialist in Family Law, with extensive experience providing advice, advocacy and representation in family law and domestic and family violence matters. Her practice encompasses complex parenting disputes, DFV related proceedings and risk informed legal responses for victim survivors. Rishika brings a unique perspective at the intersection of family law, domestic and family violence and animal welfare, informed by both frontline legal practice and policy engagement. Rishika was previously Vice Chair of the NSW Young Lawyers Animal Law Committee, a subcommittee of the Law Society of NSW. In this role, she led education and policy initiatives aimed at advancing animal welfare through legal reform, practitioner engagement and broader cultural change. Under her leadership, the Committee delivered high profile professional education events, including the 2023 Animal Law Conference: Within the Confines.